

Priscilla Mills

ANTRIM — Priscilla Mae Drew (Chandler) Mills, 67, died at home with her family by her side Jan. 27, 2010, after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

She was born Dec. 8, 1942, to Lawrence and Doris Hilton. She lived in Antrim most of her life.

She was a certified nursing assistant who cared for the elderly at Maplewood Manse and later at Summerhill in Peterborough. She was honored as the Top CNA of the Year in 2000.

She loved nature, particularly in northern New Hampshire. When the warm weather came, there was no stopping her travels to her camper. She not only enjoyed the peacefulness, but was fond of the loons, viewing moose, identifying birds and planting flowers. She liked to have her family and friends share in her camping adventures. She enjoyed cooking, going to yard sales and her frog collection.

Family members include her husband of 12 years, Robert Mills Sr.; son Jeffrey Chandler; four daughters, Faith Miller, Susan Ostertag, Shannon Hutchison and Hope Mitchell; stepson Bobby Jr.; three stepdaughters, Karen Leach, Susan Mills and Amy Schunemann; 15 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, as well as several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her first husband, Roland Chandler, in 1995.

SERVICES: To honor her wishes, services will not be held. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hospice, P.O. Box 496, Community Lane, Peterborough 03458.
